“Finding Your Photographic Voice”

A Presentation by Grant Swinbourne

Monday October 27, 2025 at 7:30pm (Pacific) *

Grant Swinbourne is an Australian landscape photographer known for his stunning images of the country's natural beauty. He specializes in capturing the rugged landscapes of Australia, with its wild coastlines, ancient forests, and majestic mountains.

In this talk, Grant will speak about how he found his voice, methods he uses to stimulate his creativity, how he shares his passion with the world and some tips on how others may find their individual voices.

Grant has been interested in photography since childhood, and his passion for the art form eventually led him to a career in landscape photography, after a successful corporate career. He has travelled extensively throughout Australia and the world, capturing breath-taking images of some of the planet's most beautiful and remote locations.

Grant's work has been featured in numerous exhibitions and publications, including National Geographic Viajes, the Spanish language travel magazine. He is particularly known for his use of light
